

September 29, 2021

Vaccine Mandates & Employers Rights

FREE webinar

Now that the Government of Saskatchewan is recommending vaccine mandate policies for employers, there have been lots of questions around employment law, rights, and responsibilities.

Your construction network and partners have teamed up to host a free webinar with experts to shed some light on this issue.

There will be an opportunity for open Q & A with our panelists.

Monday, October 4, 2021 from 12:00 PM to 2:00 PM

Register now

The Presenters

Candice D. Grant

Expert Employment Law | Robertson Stromberg LLP

Candice is a partner with the Robertson Stromberg law firm. She has a broad range of civil litigation experience, focusing on employment matters and municipal law.

Candice represents all parties to employment disputes including employees, employers, management and unions. She has extensive experience in wrongful dismissal and human rights cases, with a focus on real and practical solutions.

Rodelle Genoway

HR Specialist | Untapped Potential Business Consulting

As the President of Untapped Potential Business Consulting, Rodelle has extensive experience providing coaching, consulting, and training to businesses.

Rodelle's areas of expertise include human resources, leadership, strategy, and continuous improvement.

Clint Repski

Deputy Minister, Ministry of Immigration and Career

Response Team

The Business Response Team, led by the Ministry of Trade and Export Development, was launched last year to support businesses in the province dealing with the economic challenges resulting from COVID-19.

Presented by

Saskatoon & Region
Home Builders'
Association

Regina & Region
Home Builders'
Association

Got a Question?

COVID-19 Task Force is here for YOU

Expert Advice in ONE Location

Our coalition of experts in legal, safety, risk & insurance, mental health, business, finance & management, and communications are a fast and nimble team ready to produce bulletins to answer member questions.

Ask a Question

COVID-19 Task Force Chair:

Mark Cooper, CEO of the SKCA

E: president@scaonline.ca

P: (306) 527-6854

